

Tomas Tivemark

Screenwriter and producer Tomas Tivemark has extensive experience in writing for film and TV. Throughout the years he has proved his versatility, skillfully moving between genres and writing everything from comedy to thrillers.

In 1995, Tivemark founded the successful production company Tre Vänner, together with Michael Hjort and Johan Kindblom. During his time at Tre Vänner, Tivemark co-created and wrote several hit TV series and films, including Bert (1994), Svensson, Svensson (1994-1996) and Cleo (2002-2003). Tre Vänner has been part of SF Studios since 2016.

Among Tivemark's works in the crime genre you can find Jakten på en mördare (1999), Wallander: The Man Who Smiled (2003) and Wallander: One Step Behind (2005). Tivemark is also known for creating and writing family and children's films, with notable titles including the beloved Bamse and the Thief City (2014), Bamse and the Thunderbell (2018) and The Lost Treasure of Aquila (2014).

2021 saw the premiere of Tivemark's latest feature film A Christmas Tale, which received great reviews and was nominated in eight categories at the 2022 Guldbagge Awards.
