

Andreas Öhman

Director and writer Andreas Öhman has devoted most of his life to the arts, and to refining his style and expression in filmmaking. He is known for making endearing feel-good films, always striving to achieve new visual perspectives, and for his warmhearted narration that goes into everything he does.

Öhman found his passion for film early in life. He grew up in northern Sweden where the vast open spaces and forests allowed his imagination to wander freely. In 2010 he debuted with his first feature film Simple Simon/I rymden finns inga känslor, starring Bill Skarsgård, which became an immediate success with viewers and critics alike. Simple Simon, written and directed by Öhman, was selected as Sweden's nomination for the Academy Awards, and was among else nominated at the Guldbagge Awards for 'Best Film', 'Best Screenplay' and 'Best Actor'.

The success from Simple Simon paved the way for Öhman's career in Film and TV, and the following years he made the feature films Bitch Hug/Bitchkram (2012), Remake (2014), Eternal Summer/Odödliga (2015) and directed the crime thriller series 100 Code. 2020 saw the premiere of Öhman's first TV project as a creator, the nerve-wracking thriller series The End of Summer/Den sista sommaren, for which he was writer and director.

Furthermore, Öhman is director of the second season of the TV4 and C More hit series Bäckström.

Öhmans feature film One Day All of This Will Be Yours/En dag kommer allt det här bli ditt, starring Karin Franz Körlof, Peter Haber och Suzanne Reuter, premiered in 2023 to fantastic reviews.

His much-anticipated romantic drama 7 Steps/7 steg premiered in 2025 to great acclaim. The film marks pop icon Veronica Maggio's feature-film acting debut, she also co-wrote the screenplay alongside Öhman. 7 Steps was nominated for Best Film at the 2026 Guldbagge Awards, and Öhman received a nomination for Best Director.
