

Frida Kempff

Frida Kempff, Swedish director and screenwriter, began her visual arts career in television, where she produced and directed several projects and documentaries. Following her graduation from the Stockholm Academy of Dramatic Arts, Kempff made a splash on the international scene with her 2009 documentary short, Bathing Micky. The title won several international awards, including the Prix du Jury at the 2010 Cannes Film Festival.

In 2015, Kempff made her full-length debut with the documentary Winter Buoy. The film premiered at the Gothenburg Film Festival, where it was nominated for the Nordic Dragon Award for 'Best Nordic Documentary'. Winter Buoy went on to win 'Best Documentary' at the Nordic International Film Festival in the US.

Knocking, Kempff's debut feature film, premiered at the 2021 Sundance Film Festival in the Midnight section. Knocking received fantastic reviews, both in Sweden and internationally.

Currently she is working on a feature film called The Swedish Torpedo, which tells the story of Sally Bauer, the second Scandinavian to swim the English Channel. Kempff is the director of the film as well as one of the co-writers.
