Jasper Lake

Jasper Lake has close to 20 years of experience from the TV industry, working mainly as producer and director. On the list of his numerous TV projects you will find Pluras Kök, Lyckliga gatan, Så mycket bättre and Klass 9A. He has won several awards including the RIA Producer Award for Lyckliga gatan and the Kristallen Award for Pluras kök.

In recent years, Lake has started moving more towards writing, building on and incorporating his aptitude for concepts and characters. In 2019, he graduated from the renowned Alma Löv Script Academy. As a screenwriter, Lake is especially drawn to drama and thriller, and stories about the friction that's born between individuals and the collective.

Lake is director and co-writer of the revealing documentary The Chosen Children (2021) which stirred up a lot of emotions and sparked a conversation about the teaching methods in Waldorf Schools.

Currently, Lake is working on a feature film.
