

Johannes Nyholm

Writer, film director, producer, artist and animator Johannes Nyholm is regarded as one of the most original and intriguing Scandinavian filmmakers of his generation.

Nyholm first gained recognition for his animated film series The Tale of Little Puppetboy (2008), which has been widely shown at festivals and galleries around the world, most notably at the Directors' Fortnight in Cannes in 2009. The following year saw the premiere of Nyholm's shadow puppetry short-film, Dreams from the Woods (2009), which was also shown at the Directors' Fortnight in Cannes. In 2011, Nyholm's short film, Las Palmas, gained worldwide fame with its trailer and received more than 20 million views on YouTube. It won a flurry of awards and became Nyholm's third entry for the Directors' Fortnight in Cannes. Las Palmas was also selected for Sundance in 2012.

In 2016, Nyholm made his highly anticipated feature film debut with The Giant, a fantastical and wondrous drama that had the highest review index of all Swedish films released in 2016. The film had its world premiere at the Toronto Film Festival and went on to screen in San Sebastian along with a slew of other international festivals. It won three Guldbagge Awards as well as prizes at the San Sebastian, Rotterdam and Warsaw film festivals.

Koko-di Koko-da, Nyholm's latest feature film, premiered at the 2019 Sundance Festival and has received numerous awards and nominations, including the Camera Lucida Award at Fantasia Film Festival, 'Best Picture' at Brussels International Film Festival, and a nomination for the prestigious Dragon Award Best Nordic Film at Gothenburg Film Festival.
