

Oskar Söderlund

Oskar Söderlund is a celebrated Swedish screenwriter and the creator and writer of The Fat and the Angry (2014), which was directed by internationally recognized director Johan Renck. The TV series premiered on SVT in 2014 and was awarded the Silver Bird Prize in the category 'TV Movie' at the 2014 Seoul International Drama Awards. The series was also nominated for a Europa Prize and became the winner of the prestigious 'Best non-English Language Drama Series' award at the 2014 C21 International Drama Awards.

Söderlund started his career by penning the screenplay for the feature film Offside (2006) and co-authoring the storyline for the TV series How Soon Is Now?! (2007), which was directed by Mikael Marcimain. Söderlund's work was awarded the Prix Italia and the Golden Fipa. He later developed and wrote the Swedish adaptation of Marianne Fredriksson's modern classic Simon (2011). The film received a record-breaking 13 nominations at the Guldbagge Awards. Additionally, Söderlund has been one of the writers of Saltön (2010), one of Sweden's most popular TV series.

Söderlund is the creator and writer of the acclaimed thriller drama series Greyzone (2018), which received outstanding reviews both in Sweden and internationally.

Söderlund is co-creator and head writer of the incredibly successful Netflix series Snabba Cash (2021) which was praised by viewers and critics alike. The anticipated second season premiered in 2022, also to great reviews. Furthermore, Söderlund is co-creator and head writer of the TV series The Dark Heart, together with director Gustav Möller. The five-part psychological drama premiered in February 2022 on the Discovery+ channel in the UK and Scandinavia, and has been met with rave reviews.

Most recently, he wrote the thriller series Cry Wolf, which premiered in December 2024 on TV4 to fantastic reviews.

Currently, Söderlund is head writer of the TV adaptation of John Le Carré's A Most Wanted Man.
