

Tarik Saleh

Director, screenwriter and producer Tarik Saleh got his start in the mid 1980s as one of Sweden's most acclaimed graffiti artists. His mural Fascinate from 1989 is the first graffiti mural to be protected by the Swedish state as a cultural heritage, and is one of the world's oldest existing graffiti paintings. Saleh then went on to work as art director and publisher. In 2001, he made his directorial debut with Sacrificio - Who betrayed Che Guevara? together with Erik Gandini.

The year 2017 saw the premiere of Saleh's international breakthrough, feature film The Nile Hilton Incident, which won numerous awards including the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival and 'Best Film' at the Guldbagge Awards.

Saleh's psychological thriller Boy From Heaven, which premiered at Cannes Film Festival in May 2022, was awarded 'Best Screenplay' as well as the prestigious Prix François Chalais Award for his film's "dedication to the values of life affirmation and of journalism".
